Governor Palin:

I guess Dona and I expected too much of your new administration. It is now another four months since we wrote you regarding our denial of last years PFD. Despite all the proof we were required to provide, and did, and a $25 fee we paid, we still have not received last years PFD. I expected more from your administration. It appears to me that it is business as usual as far as State government is concerned.

I know this isn't a priority for you but it should be. My wife and I are both seniors and count on this as part of our income stream that allows us to remain in Alaska. I also consider it a real insult to charge a fee for services that should be provided in the first place. I know, by your previous response, that this message is not seen by the Governor. Perhaps it should be so that she can see areas of State Government that need to be revamped and streamlined. While your staff has been courteous they have not been adept at processing and evaluating information. When I worked for the State, I am proud to say, that something like this would not have sat on my desk without resolution for more than a day...let alone almost a year.

Please do something for us.

Martin and Dona Grossman

MESSAGE:
both my wife,dona, and I were denied our permanent funds last year because we innadvertantly answered a question incorrectly while on a short vacation. Both of us are seniors and state retiree's who have lived in Alaska continuously for over 30 years. The letters that came from your (predaccers)permanent fund office were insulting and damning where a phone call could have solved the problem. We were forced to defend our response, which we did, and appeal the decision made by the permanent fund investigative...and I use that term loosely, folks. We continue to wait on the State for a decision and hopefully to get the checks which we deserve. Please advise and tell me what you intend to do about this injustice. Thank You.

My grandson Privileg lived in Alaska for a while with a women named Privileged or Person, they had a baby Privileged or Personal. When she was 3mo. old he died. The kids were taken from her because she was put in jail for drugs and drinking and I don't know what else. The sister of Privileg in Idaho was given the kids for 2 years then given back to their mother. The children are in a foster home in Ancorage with the mother of Privileged boyfriend who is in the same shape as Privileged. We have been trying for months to get her so she will go to the Aunts in Idaho who had them before. Friday we found Privileged or P (4yrs.old)has been molested and she is still in the home with probably the person who did this to her. The tribe is not willing to give her to her blood relatives who all love her very much. She would be in a good Christian home.

Subject: thoughts on B&C

What do you think about Privileg for the vacancy on the Mental Health Trust Authority? If you remember, the 6 person panel sent one nomination that we weren't 100% on. I know we were thinking of Privi for the Health Council, but I thought MHTA might be another perfect place for her. Very high profile position for someone key.

Also, what do you think about Privileged o for the vacancy on Royalty Oil and Gas? It's the seat vacated by Charlie Cole. He doesn't want to be re-appointed. The other names that crossed my mind: Privileged or Per (Stepovich thought he might be good), Privileged (applied for PFD), Privileged (applied for ANGDA).

Third, I've been meeting with Tara Jollie re: AK Workforce Investment Board. She and Commissioner Bishop would like to start changing out that board in three rounds of 6 members. I have a meeting with Tib and Tara on Thursday to go over Labor's suggestions.

The more I think about the Health Council, the more I think Privileged or should be on there. What do you guys think?

Thanks,
